How I Work

Strategic + Curious + Evidence-Based

I look beyond the surface to uncover the real challenge, then build practical systems that are sustainable and measurable.

Insightful, Trusted, & Intentional

Calm under pressure, deeply thoughtful, and someone who brings structure to complexity while supporting.

WHO I AM PROFESSIONALLY

Senior learning and development professional who designs the systems that organize learning — not just the courses inside them.

Across 15+ years spanning instructional design, learning architecture, program governance, and learning operations, builds the frameworks, standards, and prioritization models that turn fragmented training into a governed, measurable system. Grounded in ADDIE, HPT, Kirkpatrick, and Quality Matters, with a CPTM credential and dual master's degrees in Learning Design & Technology (Purdue) and Library & Information Science.

THE VALUE I BRING

- ✓ Turns fragmented learning into scalable systems.
- ✓ Aligns people, process, and strategy across complex initiatives.
- ✓ Creates structure that drives measurable performance.

LET'S START THE CONVERSATION

I commit fully wherever I land, I care about the learner on the other end, and I make the people around me feel supported.
